

ab initio* calculations

Ab initio calculations are quantum chemical calculations using exact equations with no approximations which involve the whole electronic population of the molecule.

1997, 69, 1139

N.B. This is superseded by a later definition.

---