

bound fraction (in radioanalytical chemistry)

The fraction of the incubation mixture which, after separation, contains the analyte bound to the binding reagent.

1994, 66, 2519