

carrier atom (in organic reaction mechanisms)

A participant atom which is neither core nor peripheral and which carries other groups to and from the molecule containing the core atom(s) but which does not itself become covalently attached to that molecule.

1989, 61, 27