

chemical shift (in photoelectron and Auger spectra)

The displacement of photoelectron or Auger peak energies originating from changes in electron binding energies as a consequence of differences in the chemical environment of the atoms.

1979, 51, 2247