

chimney effect (in atmospheric chemistry)

A vertical movement of a localized mass of air or other gases which occurs due to local temperature differences.

1990, 62, 2179