

diastereoisomeric units (in a polymer)

Two non-superposable configurational units that correspond to the same constitutional unit are considered to be diastereomeric if they are not mirror images.

P.B. 27