

equivalence postulate (in polymer chemistry)

The working hypothesis that the chain monomeric units are geometrically equivalent.

P.B. 78