

fixed neutral loss (gain) scan (in mass spectrometry)

A scan which determines, in a single experiment, all the parent ion mass-to-charge ratios which react to the loss or gain of a selected neutral mass.

1991, 63, 1551