

fixed precursor ion scan (in mass spectrometry)

A scan which determines, in a single experiment, all the daughter ion mass-to-charge ratios that are produced by the reaction of a selected parent ion mass-to-charge ratio.

1991, 63, 1551