

gain (of a photomultiplier), G

The gain of a photomultiplier is given by the equation $G = k\sigma^n$, where k is the efficiency of collection of photoelectrons on the first dynode, σ is the secondary emission ratio, i.e. the number of secondary electrons emitted for each electron incident on the dynode and n is the number of dynodes.

1995, 67, 1753