

general base catalysis

The catalysis of a chemical reaction by a series of Brønsted bases (which may include the lyate ion) so that the rate of the catalysed part of the reaction is given by $\Sigma k_B[B]$ multiplied by some function of substrate concentration.

See also general acid catalysis.

1994, 66, 1117