

hold-up volume (in chromatography)

The volume of eluent required to elute a component, the concentration of which in the stationary phase is negligible compared to that in the mobile phase.

O.B. 100