

horizontal elution (horizontal development) (in planar chromatography)

A mode of operation in which the paper or plate is in a horizontal position and the mobile-phase movement along the plane depends on capillary action.

1993, 65, 829