

ion kinetic energy spectrum (in mass spectrometry)

A spectrum obtained when a beam of ions is separated according to the translational energy-to-charge ratios of the ionic species contained within it. A radial electric field ( $E$ ) achieves separation of the various ionic species in this way.

1991, 63, 1550