

lifetime (of luminescence)

The time required for the luminescence intensity to decay from some initial value to  $1/e$  of that value ( $e = 2.718 \dots$ ). Lifetimes can be measured by phase fluorimetry (phosphorimetry) where the phase shift between the sinusoidally modulated exciting light and the emitted light is measured.

1984, 56, 242