

mass range (in mass spectrometry)

The range of mass numbers which can be characterized by a mass spectrometer with sufficient resolution to differentiate adjacent peaks.

1990, 62, 2200