

nominal linear flow (in chromatography), F

The volumetric flowrate of the mobile phase divided by the area of the cross section of the column (cm min^{-1}) i.e. the linear flowrate in a part of the column not containing packing.

O.B. 102