

partial mass density,  $\rho_B$

Change in mass due to addition of a small amount of component to a system divided by the change in volume of the system. The systematic name is partial volumic mass.

1996, 68, 986