

pressure, p

Normal force acting on a surface divided by the area of that surface. For a mixture of gases the contribution by each constituent is called the partial pressure $p_i = x_i p$, where x_i is the amount fraction of the i th constituent and p is the total pressure.

G.B. 12; 1996, 68, 987