

pseudo acids

Potentially acidic compounds that require some structural reorganization, such as keto–enol tautomerization, having a non-negligible activation energy, in order to show normal acidic properties, e.g. nitroalkanes:

1995, 67, 1361