

polyelectrolyte complex

Neutral polymer-polymer complex composed of macromolecules carrying charges of opposite sign causing the macromolecules to be bound together by electrostatic interactions.

Note: A polyelectrolyte complex is also called a polysalt. Use of this term is not recommended.

2006, 78, 2073