

relative hardness

The difference between the values of the absolute hardnesses (η) of a given molecule and the corresponding reference structure (η_a):

$\eta_r = \eta - \eta_a$. The values of relative hardnesses correlate well with the resonance energies of cyclic compounds and may be used as an index of aromaticity.

1999, 71, 1960