

sensitization (in colloid chemistry)

Addition of small amounts of a hydrophilic colloid to a hydrophobic sol to possibly make the latter more sensitive to flocculation by electrolyte.

1972, 31, 610