

shielding constant,  $\sigma$

In NMR the difference between the external magnetic flux density and the local magnetic flux density at a resonating nucleus affected by the neighbouring electrons divided by the external flux density,  $\sigma = (B_0 - B)/B_0$ .

G.B. 25