

spreading function (in chromatography)

The normalized signal produced, as a function of elution volume at the outlet of a size-exclusion chromatography set-up, by an instantaneous injection of a uniform sample.

P.B. 69