

suspended matter (in atmospheric chemistry)

All particulate material which persists in the atmosphere or in a flue gas stream for lengthy periods because the particles are too small in size to have an appreciable falling velocity.

1990, 62, 2217