

time-independent stoichiometry

A state in which the stoichiometric equation applies throughout the course of the reaction.

1981, 53, 754